EXCHANGE GOSSIP.

The Southern Pacific Railway company will spend $200,000 next year on advertising Texas.—Yokum Times.

"And yet and still" some people say that advertising don't pay.

President Taft's message to congress contains 45,000 words. It is the longest document of its kind ever penned.—Yokum Times.

And it will be longer still before anybody reads it.

There are said to be two million Jews in this country. Go where you will you find a Jewish merchant.—Gonzales Inquirer.

You've missed it. There is no Jewish merchant in Moulton.—Moulton Eagle.

Same here in Shiner.

Richmond Pearson Hobson spoke for over two hours in Baltimore the other day, but we are glad to announce that the audience maintained its self-control sufficiently to refrain from declaring war against Japan.—Houston Post.

Hobson must be in the pay of the steel trust, who wish to build more battleships.

Hallettsville has a newspaper man who will soon sport an auto. Bro. Kopecky of the Novo Domov has recently purchased a Ford machine from T. A. Hill & Son, agents for this section.—Hallettsville Herald.

Joe is one of the handsomest newspaper men in Texas and would grace anything—even an automobile.

Orders in Bankruptcy Cases.

Orders were entered yesterday by Judge Henry L. Borden, referee in bankruptcy, in a number of pending cases, among the most important of which was the appointment of a receiver to take charge of the assets of Max M. Landa, of Hallettsville.

In the Landa case, M. S. Kahn of Hallettsville was appointed receiver with authority to take charge of the assets, consisting principally of a large stock of merchandise, immediately.—Houston Post, 7th.

The following parties were employed by Receiver Kahn and began their labors Thursday taking stock:

John Rhodes, Jim Vesmirovsky, H. M. Tippet, A. Finkelstein, Haskell Fishgold, and H. S. Paulus.—Hallettsville Herald.

County Court.

The court this week has been at work on the criminal docket and so far 28 old cases have been dismissed by the new county attorney.

Will Lee, theft under $50, continued.

Gerhard Miller, theft under $50, not guilty.

Jim Janak, theft under $50, not guilty.

Jose Rodriguez, carrying bowie knife, fined $100.

Frank Baros, aggravated assault, fined $25.

John Kubena, electioneering within 100 feet of polling place, not guilty.—Hallettsville Herald.

Hickey Speaks.

Thomas A. Hickey the well known Socialist Lecturer and organizer will speak in Lavaca county at the following places on the dates named:

Pilot Grove, Monday night, December 19th.

Arkansas, Tuesday night, December 20th.

Exell, Wednesday and Thursday nights, Dec. 21st and 22nd.

Klimitschek School, Friday night, December 23.

Hallettsville, 2 p. m., Saturday, December 24th.

Moulton News.

Moulton Eagle:

Miss Maude Crane of Shiner arrived Sunday on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crane. Mrs. M. C. Kubitz returned to Shiner last Thursday after a pleasant visit to the family of Mr. Rud. Jaeggli.

The state department of education made the apportionment of the available school fund for the month of December 75 cents for each of the 958,269 children shown by the scholastic census.

Prof. William Eilers, Lavaca county's superintendent of public instruction, has appointed Prof. K. A. Jones of Hallettsville, Prof. T. J. Ponton of Shiner and Prof. E. Schoppe of this city as members of the county board of examiners.

When your feet are wet and cold, and your body chilled through and through from exposure, take a big dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, bathe your feet in hot water before going to bed, and you are almost certain to ward off a severe cold. For sale by all dealers.

Chas. H. Flato, Jr., Elected Director.

At the meeting of the directors of the oil mill, Tuesday evening, Chas. H. Flato, Jr., was elected a member of the board of directors, vice S. J. Ragland, resigned.—Gulf Coast Record, Kingsville.

When you have a cold get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will soon fix you up all right and will ward off any tendency toward pneumonia. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

Yokum Improvements.

Yokum, Texas, December 11.—Work of cutting down the hill opposite the passenger depot, preparatory to removing the switch yards from the Gonzales street crossing to that point, is progressing rapidly. It will take about four months to complete this work.

Brick work on the two-story buildings of S. A. Carnes & Son and the Creamery Dairy company has practically been finished.

E. Herder has commenced the erection of a neat residence in the eastern part of town, C. M. Smith having the contract.

Saved From Awful Death

How an appalling calamity in his family was prevented is told by A. D. McDonald, of Fayetteville, N. C. R. P. D. 8. "My sister had consumption," he writes, "she was very thin and pale, had no appetite and seemed to grow weaker every day, as all remedies failed, till Dr. King's New Discovery was tried, and so completely cured her, that she has not been troubled with a cough since. It's the best medicine I ever saw or heard of." For coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhage, all bronchial troubles, it has no equal. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.
